- Be enrolled in an accredited higher education program (college, vocational program or internship)
- Have completed the FAFSA, Chafee Grant (if applicable), and applied for available grants and scholarships
- Be under the age of 24

TAY-FAP SUPPORT MAY PERTAIN TO:

School supplies and fees

Transportation expenses

Groceries
(if not eligible for CalFresh)

Mentorship and tutoring

Housing in a dormitory, room in student housing, house or apartment

Urgent, essential, or emergency needs not covered by Medi-Cal

Savings Match program that can help you earn up to an additional $1,200
(first year only)

Case management support for ages 21 to 24

HOW TO GET STARTED

- You can reach out to your ILP Case Manager, Social Worker or College Transition Specialist for support!
- If you are unsure who your ILP worker currently is or do not know if you are eligible, please contact the ILP Supervisor at Family Care Network at (805) 781-3535.
- If you are currently in a Transitional Housing Program, please reach out to your FCNI Social Worker.
- Fill out a TAY-FAP Application Packet which must be renewed each school term in order to continue receiving assistance.
